CATALOGUE 2026

BALADARSHAN is a network of dozens of producers groups / individual artisans, throughout South India. But it is first an organization of slums women handcrafts producers from Chennai.

These women are supported by SPEED Trust (Slum People Education and Economic Development) which is the BALADARSHAN's associated Non-Governmental Organization running several programs in Chennai slum areas.

AIM

- Design, production and promotion of handcrafts made by economically and socially deprived women from slum areas, particularly widows and deserted mothers, physically challenged persons and HIV affected patients.

ACTIVITIES

- Wire baskets producers' group, especially dedicated to physically challenged women.
- Tailoring unit focusing on upcycled products.

PRODUCTS

- Wire polyethylene baskets.
- Upcycled products.

PEED TRUST

Slum People Education & Economic Development

Slum People Education and Economic Development Trust, started in 2000, concentrates its efforts on one of the biggest slum areas in Chennai, Gandhi Nagar - Sathyavani Muthu Nagar. This NGO runs three main programs:

- EDUCATION provides facilities for slum children, creche, library, computer lab, loans facilitation for college students, tuition centre.
- FAMILY FOLLOW-UP focuses in pulling families out of the deepest poverty, especially isolated mothers, widowed or deserted .
- TRAINING & ECONOMICAL SUPPORT consists on one side in vocational training such as auto-rickshaw driving for women and handicrafts, screen-printing, beautician, and on the other side in micro-credit loans.

Recycled plastic covers

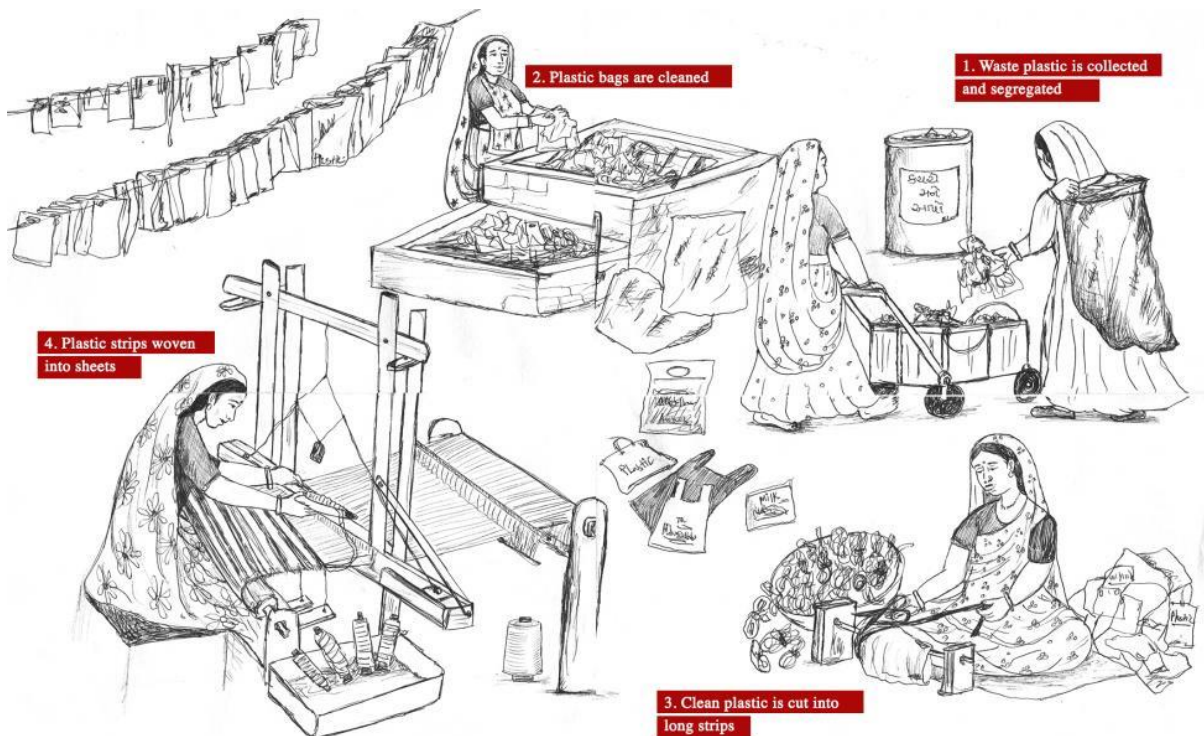

Recycled plastic covers

Traditional weaving skills must respond to today's environmental issues.

The products we carry made from recycled plastic covers are created by a process which brings together marginalized groups of the society.

Plastic waste is collected from a combined effort of rag pickers, area committees and schools. The plastic is then cleaned, cut, and prepared into bobbins before woven on handlooms by women weavers.

Thus, the products provide education and employment while benefitting our earth !
